Published quarterly by Maryville College. Entered May 24, 1904, at Maryville, Tennessee, as second-class mail matter. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized February 10, 1919.

The Alumni President's Message

Dear Fellow Alumni:

Another school year is in progress and we look forward to another year of activity and accomplishment in our Alumni Association.

During the past summer our work was supplemented by the assistance of Dr. F. A. Griffitts. He visited several Maryville College Clubs in the interest of the Chapel Fund. Much good was accomplished and encouraging results were attained but we must continue to give ourselves to this cause. Follow this effort to a successful conclusion in your Club.

October 29th we observe Founders Day and Homecoming. Last year we had a large group of alumni return for this occasion but we want to do even better this year. We hope every Maryville College Club throughout the United States will be represented at Homecoming this year. Also,we hope each of you as individuals will plan to be here. We, here at Maryville, will do our best to make your visit an occasion of pleasure and satisfaction.

We are continuing our efforts to organize Maryville College Clubs wherever such a unit seems advisable. A number are now in motion and others will be soon. We want many of these throughout the country for a strong Alumni Association will help to make a stronger Maryville.

We are deeply grateful for your interest, your loyalty and your devotion to Maryville College and its program. And we are encouraged to believe that these qualities will enable our Alma Mater to achieve whatever goal she seeks.

Sincerely,

FELLOW ALUMNI:

As I accept the privilege of talking with you a little through this page, there are four matters especially in my thoughts:

1. Student Enrolment

Everyone on the Hill was absorbed with registration processes for the two weeks that followed August 30. Twice each year, before the appointed work of instruction and living together can begin, a great deal of lining up, signing up, and toning up must be done. When a college limits its size and has more applicants than can be accepted, the final selections and assignments are difficult. Well, that is past for this semester and students and faculty are settling down to the routines by which education is actually accomplished.

Counting of student names and faces reveals thirteen more students than at the same time last year and one more than the all-time record made two years ago. We count 899, of whom 509 are men. I asked the Dean of Students if 900 would not be an easier number to say, and just then another arrived—but one already here went home, so the number is still 899.

When one breaks down the enrollment figures he finds: that there are 119 more men than women (before and during World War II there were more women than men); that the number of women is rigidly limited by dormitory space and many were turned away, whereas men are permitted to overflow into town and most qualified applicants were accepted; that the number of veterans has decreased from 273 (64% of the men) in 1946 to 150 (30%) in 1949, but that the total number of men has increased from 427 in 1946 to 509 in 1949; that ten years ago 158 local students enrolled and this year 197.

We can handle 900 quite satisfactorily even though they crowd us; but actually we need more dormitory and laboratory space for 800, to say nothing of 900. I hope we will never take enough to put us over 1,000—for various important reasons.

2. The New Buildings

The new Chapel is not yet a reality but it is nearer with every alumni pledge. We have almost sixty percent of the funds in sight and are trusting you to put the fund over the top this fall and winter. The Women's Dormitory is a little farther away but the gifts to it are already substantial. The Fine Arts Center will be built just as soon as costs are judged to be reasonable and stable. So far they have seemed unreasonable. Before you read this we will have examined bids on the Fine Arts Center now being prepared and will know whether or not it can be started this fall. These are improvements of great importance to the College.

3. The Directors of Maryville College

In preparing the brief sketches of three new Directors, appearing on another page, I kept saying to myself, "We have a noble and notable group of men and women on our Board." Permit me just to repeat that fact to you. From the founding of the College in 1819, the number of Directors authorized has been thirty-six. There are at present twenty ministers from eleven States, thirteen laymen, and three laywomen. All are active in the Church, believe in Christian education, and wish to see Maryville College truly Christian in program and influence. All serve without compensation and deserve the gratitude of every Maryville graduate.

4. The Church College in America

The fourth matter which is especially in my thoughts these days is the place and future of colleges like Maryville. Sometime I may prepare for the Alumni Magazine an article on this vital theme. I have written and spoken of it in various places. Just now I am serving as chairman of the Committee on Public Relations for the Commission on Christian Higher Education of the Association of American Colleges, and we are trying to say something nationally on the theme. The increasing dominance of Government with varied schemes of institutional and individual subsidy, the "nationalization" of education, the pressures against definite Christian programs imposed in the name of "tolerance," and the apathy of Protestant church people—all help to create a crucial problem. Maryville is on solid foundations and I am full of hope for the future, but I am sure also that the necessity and independence of the Christian college must be set forth with increased effectiveness.

Sincerely,

Ralph Waldo Lloyd

PLANS COMPLETED FOR FINE ARTS CENTER

Schweikher and Elting, Architects, Chicago, in August completed drawings and specifications for the new Fine Arts Center and these have been approved by the College. They represent two years of study and work. President Lloyd, Miss Katharine Davies, Chairman of the Fine Arts Division, and the architects have visited various leading music schools (including Juilliard, Eastman, and others).

About September first, sets of completed plans were submitted to a number of contractors for estimates. The deadline for the submission of bids was set at 3:00 p.m., September 30. Although this Bulletin is dated October, it must be written in September and therefore ahead of the submission of the bids.

Building costs are some better but still are high. If the bids are within reasonable limits, a contract may be let and construction started. On the other hand, if the bids are beyond practicable limits, it will be necessary to ask for further estimates or revise the plans or postpone construction. Hence, until after October 1 the actual building program cannot be known.

In a future issue of this Magazine, some description or floor plan of the Fine Arts Center will be given.

DEATH OF JUSTICE WILEY B. RUTLEDGE

The death of Wiley B. Rutledge, Justice of the United States Supreme Court, on September 10 in York, Maine, was of national concern. It was of special concern to all Maryville College people for Wiley Rutledge was one of the College's most distinguished alumni.

He was a student in the Maryville College Preparatory Department for two years and in the College Department for three years between 1908 and 1913. He completed his junior year at Maryville but took his senior year and bachelor's degree at the University of Wisconsin. After teaching for several years in high schools of Indiana, New Mexico, and Colorado, he took his law degree at the University of Colorado. His going to the West was partly for health reasons. After practicing law two years in Boulder, Colorado, he became a member of the law faculty of the University of Colorado in 1924, and for the next fifteen years taught law there, at Washington University in St. Louis, and at the University of Iowa. At the two latter institutions he was Dean of the Law Schools. President Roosevelt appointed him in 1939 to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia and in 1943 to the United States Supreme Court.

In October, 1945 he gave the Founders Day address at Maryville College and the College conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

In 1917 he was married to Annabel Person, who had been a member of the Maryville College faculty from 1911 to 1914. They have two daughters and one son.

Dr. Rutledge with four classmates, Mayme Maxey Bisanar, A.B. Waggoner, Erma Hall Crawford, and E. R. Hunter, at the 1945 Homecoming.

NEW FACULTY

David R. Stone, Instructor in Latin and Spanish. He is a native of Kentucky but a graduate of the University of Tennessee. He has had more than twenty years of high school language teaching experience in Muncie, Indiana; Chattanooga, Tennessee, and Covington, Kentucky. During World War II he served as an employee counselor with the Wright Aero-Nautical Corporation.

Lillian H. Wonder, Head of Baldwin Hall. She received her higher education at Ohio Wesleyan University and McCormick Theological Seminary. Her husband was Rev. Dr. Harold F. Wonder, who died three years ago while pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Barbara Leigh Eggleston, Assistant in the Library and in Baldwin Hall. Miss Eggleston received the B.A. degree from Maryville College last May.

Florence E. Harter, Instructor in Home Economics (part-time). Mrs. Harter, whose husband is Assistant Professor of Music at Maryville College, received the B.S. degree in Home Economics at the University of Nebraska and taught three years at Plainview High School in Nebraska.

Edith DeLaney Largen, Instructor in Physical Education. Mrs. Largen graduated from Maryville College in 1948, and during the past year has been at the University of Michigan where her husband, William O. Largen, '48, completed work for his Master's degree in Physical Education. When a student at Maryville she was an assistant in Physical Education.

Herman David Middleton, Instructor in Drama and Speech. Mr. Middleton is a native of Florida and attended Rollins College there one year, but did most of his preparation at Columbia University where he received both the Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Drama and Speech. He is a veteran with three years' service in the Navy.

Mildred Whitlow Hughes, Instructor in Drama and Speech (part-time). Mrs. Hughes received the B.A. degree from Murray State Teachers College, Kentucky, and in 1946-1947 served as Instructor in Drama at Maryville College, where her husband is Instructor in Music.

Lucile Gillespie Stepp, Instructor in Home Economics. Mrs. Stepp graduated at Maryville College in 1939 with a major in Home Economics. Since then she has been doing practical home economics at her home in Alcoa (she has three children) and has taught three years in the public schools.

PROGRESS IN WOMEN'S DORMITORY CAMPAIGN

The fund for a new women's dormitory has reached $73,614 in gifts and pledges, of which all but $1,163 has been paid in. Miss Clemmie J. Henry is leading in the raising of this fund.

Of the total so far reached, $45,118 has come from individuals or organizations of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The first $25,000 was half of a legacy left to the College by Miss Augusta J. Boone, of Meriden, Connecticut. She became interested in and acquainted with the College through the D.A.R., on whose list of officially Approved Schools Maryville has a place. The Tennessee State Society, D.A.R., this past summer contributed $7,125 to the fund.

Various other friends of the College have given the other $28,496. The campaign is to be continued until there is enough to erect a building to house between seventy-five and one hundred girls, now estimated to cost $250,000 or more. This is one of the College's vital needs.

John C. Crawford, Jr., '27, served as General Chairman of the Blount County Campaign Committee for the Maryville College Chapel Fund. In August, Mr. Crawford was re-elected Mayor of Maryville.

THE CHAPEL FUND

On August 31, money and pledges in hand for use in building the Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel had reached a total of $221,299.93. That is well on the way toward the goal of $400,000, but there is still a steep road ahead. The College is depending on alumni to furnish the $180,000 still needed. As rapidly as possible all will be given specific opportunity to give.

MARYVILLE COLLEGE CLUBS

Two new clubs have been formed since last spring. At a meeting of the Atlantic Highlanders in Philadelphia on June 4, it was voted to disband the Atlantic Highlanders and to organize a Philadelphia area club. The Metropolitan Club and the National Capital Club, also in the Atlantic Highlanders area, had already been organized. The following officers of the new Philadelphia Club were elected: Chairman, Norman H. Beamer, '37; Vice Chairman, John B. Taggart, '30; and Secretary-Treasurer, William M. Whiteley, ex '37.

In the spring the Central Pennsylvania Club was organized and the following officers were elected: Chairman, William S. Fahnestock, ex '38; Vice Chairman, Samuel W. Blizzard, Jr., '36; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Harold B. (Lenore Wise) Shearer, '44.

The National Capital Club elected the following new officers: Chairman, J. Edward Kidder, '16; Vice Chairman, Benjamin A. Lynt, '44; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary J. Carroll, '31.

The new officers of the Ohio Valley Maryville College Club are: Chairman, Robert C. Borcer, '36; First Vice Chairman, George F. Deebel, '35; Second Vice Chairman, Herbert W. Hunt, '36; Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Meineke, '44; Program Committee: Philip Vogel, '30, Chairman, Mrs. William (Zenobia Bernardini) DuBois, '46, Charles Edgemon, '19, and Maryanna Ilasz, '26.

RETIREMENT OF MISS HALLOCK AND MISS HARWOOD

Mary Matthews Hallock, Head of Baldwin Hall for the past thirteen years, retired from active service at commencement time. Miss Hallock was in college work for thirty-eight years, serving at five institutions. For twenty-five years before coming to Maryville she was a Dean of Women and most of the time a teacher of English or Education also—at Texas Presbyterian College, State Teachers College (Wayne, Nebraska), Conservatory of Music in Cincinnati, and Shenandoah College, Virginia. She holds the B.A. degree from the University of Kansas and the M.A. degree from Columbia University. At Maryville College Miss Hallock won the esteem of faculty and students alike by her ability, fairness, unselfishness, and good judgment, and rendered a valuable service.

Iola Gauss Harwood, Assistant to the Head of Baldwin Hall for the past twelve years, retired from her position at Maryville College at commencement time. She has been a life-long friend of Miss Hallock and it was upon Miss Hallock's recommendation that she came to Maryville in 1937. Miss Harwood was a teacher in Texas Presbyterian College with Miss Hallock and later taught in Silliman College, Louisiana, Mary Baldwin College, Virginia, and Shenandoah College, Virginia. She holds the B.A. degree from the University of Kansas and the M.A. degree from Columbia University. Miss Harwood's good spirit, conscientiousness, and loyalty made her years at Maryville serviceable ones.

DR. ORR'S BOOK

During the past year Dr. H. E. Orr has expanded and published in book form his lectures on "The Words of Jesus and Problems of Religious Thinking." The new book has 159 pages and contains a revision and a summary of his course of the same title which has meant so much to so many Maryville College students during the past twenty-five years. Copies may be ordered from the Maryville College Book Store at $1.75 each, postpaid.

FACULTY NEWS

As usual, the faculty were widely scattered during the summer months and did many interesting things.

Two members visited Europe. Miss Charlotte Johnson, Instructor in Art, made an intensive visit to art centers in England, France, Switzerland, and Italy. Mrs. Rollin Marquis (Carmen Park, '19) Director of the Student Center and Instructor in Bible, spent the summer in England, Scotland, France, and Italy with her son, who is a student at Oxford University, England.

Many of the faculty did further study at summer schools: Miss Davies, Miss Horne, and Miss Vawter were at Eastman School of Music; Mr. Johnson and Mr. Reber were at the University of Indiana, Miss Robertson and Mrs. Pieper at the University of Tennessee; Mr. Hughes at Northwestern; Miss Nelson at the University of Michigan; Mr. Bushing at the State University of Iowa; Mr. Ainsworth at the University of Chicago; Miss Meiselwitz attended a Nutrition Workshop at Michigan State College, and Mr. Davis attended coaching schools at Georgia Tech and U. T.

Several faculty members taught in summer schools: Dr. Briggs and Dr. Williams at Appalachian State Teachers College, North Carolina; Dr. Case at Huntingdon College, Alabama; Dr. Barker at Furman University, South Carolina; Professor Howell at Union College, Kentucky. Mrs. Kramer covered the country from south to north, first teaching in a Methodist Laboratory School for Christian Workers in West Palm Beach, Florida, and then touring New England.

Miss Archibald is now Mrs. Conrad Eaddy. They were married August 24.

A son, David LeRoy, Jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Engelhardt on June 23.

Miss Jessie Johnson is back at the College after being away during the second semester last year on Sabbatical Leave. She studied in her field of American literature at Columbia University. Mr. Pieper's leave of absence has been extended for another year that he might continue his graduate study. He was at the University of Tennessee last year and is to be at the University of North Carolina this year.

"A Manual for First Year Theory" by Miss Horne, Associate Professor of Music, was published this summer. It is a textbook based on material formerly hectographed for her theory classes and is available at the Book Store.

ENROLL NOW FOR 1950

Alumni are advised to see that their sons and daughters and other young people in whom they have interest file applications now, if they are planning to enter Maryville College in the fall of 1950.

The number of applications each year has become so large that the dormitories have been filled months ahead of time. The College's officers have regretted keenly the fact that many alumni sons and daughters and others whom they have directed toward Maryville have applied too late to be accepted.

The order of acceptance is determined by the order of completion of the application credentials and not the date of the preliminary application. For this reason it is advisable to start the application procedure early in the fall of the year previous to the anticipated time of enrolment. Otherwise, a delay in return of even one credential might mean the delay of completion of the application, and so acceptance, until after the quota had been filled.

ALUMNI CHAPEL CAMPAIGN

The last issue of this Alumni Magazine, received by alumni in early summer, described in some detail the plans to present the Chapel Fund appeal to Maryville alumni everywhere. Most of the campaign is to be carried forward this fall and winter, but a substantial beginning was made during the summer.

Area campaigns were initiated in Washington, D.C., on June 14, in Philadelphia on June 17, in Pittsburgh on June 20, in Chattanooga on July 11, in Cincinnati on July 22, in Atlanta on July 28, and in Birmingham on July 29.

This schedule seemed wise even though many people were away in the summer season and it was realized that none of the area campaigns could be completed until fall. Several report meetings have been held already and about one fourth of the pledge cards distributed have been returned to the committees. The other three fourths are expected in the early fall. It is encouraging that 120 of the 135 cards so far returned carry pledges or gifts to the Chapel Fund.

Either President Lloyd or Professor F. A. Griffitts, '25, has been at most of the planning and report meetings, and Mr. L. A Black, Director of Maintenance, visited each of the southern cities to make the preliminary plans. Dr. Griffitts gave most of his time during the summer to this work.

Other centers where there are sufficient concentrations of alumni are initiating similar programs. In these centers alumni committees will place pledge cards in the hands of all fellow alumni. Those who do not live in such centers will receive direct from the College pledge cards for their use.

The goal: the largest possible gift for the Chapel from every Maryville College man and woman.

RETIREMENT OF MISS BASSETT

Miss Almira C. Bassett, '09, Assistant Professor of Latin, who has been a member of the Maryville College faculty since 1926, during the summer announced her retirement from active teaching because of frail health.

Her request to be allowed to retire was made only after she found she did not have sufficient strength to continue. It was granted by the College with deep regret. Miss Bassett has been an able and beloved teacher.

She graduated from Maryville College with highest honors in her class in 1909. In 1921 she received the Master of Arts degree in Latin from the University of Michigan. In various years she studied at Michigan and other universities, including the University of Chicago and the University of Tennessee. In 1928 she studied and traveled in Italy, Greece, France, and other European countries.

After graduation from Maryville College she was a high school teacher for thirteen years, of which eight were at Waterloo, Iowa, and the last three at Birmingham, Michigan. She was called by her Alma Mater in 1926.

Miss Almira will continue to make her home just off the campus with her sister, Miss Emma Bassett, and her brother, Dr. Harry J. Bassett, '04, who was Professor of Latin at Maryville College from 1905 to 1920 and recently retired from the faculty of Southwestern, Memphis.

John H. Murrian, President of the W. J. Savage Company, Knoxville, served as General Chairman of the Knoxville Campaign Committee for the Chapel Fund.

THE 1950 FEBRUARY MEETINGS

The 74th series of February Meetings will be held February 1-9, 1950. The preacher will be the Rev. William M. Elliott, Ph.D., D.D., Pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church, Dallas, Texas.

Dr. Elliott, who is a leading Minister of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (Southern), was the February Meetings leader in 1943. At that time he was Pastor of the Druid Hills Presbyterian Church in Atlanta. He is a graduate of Park College and Louisville Presbyterian Seminary and holds the Ph.D. degree from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland.

STUDENT HONORS

Dan Winter, a senior music major, last spring won the first prize, a $1,000 scholarship, in a contest in Memphis sponsored by the Memphis and Mid-South Piano Scholarship Association for the region covering Tennessee, Mississippi, and Arkansas. The $1,000 may be used for piano study in any school approved by the Association. Dan has studied under Miss Katharine Davies, chairman of the Division of Fine Arts, since he entered college in 1946.

Margaret Rock, who graduated last May, was awarded a $1,500 Danforth Foundation Fellowship for 1949-1950. She is being sent to the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, to work there for the year in connection with religious and student activities. The Foundation gives only fifteen such fellowships each year.

McCormick Seminary has notified the College that three of the eight winners in the scholarship competition examination are Maryville graduates—Katherine Carpenter, Hedwig Nabholz, and Marjorie Prall.

130TH COMMENCEMENT

The 1949 Commencement was more like prewar Commencements than any held for six or seven years. Parents and alumni can travel freely again and the graduating classes are getting back to their accustomed size and balance.

For the third time the services on Baccalaureate Sunday and the Exercises on Commencement Day were in the Alumni Gymnasium. But it has been gratifying to see how well the Gym adapts itself to Commencement events. A big temporary platform, chairs on the floor, the bleachers, and good acoustics combine to make a very good place even though it be a little rustic in its details.

The annual Senior Breakfast given by President and Mrs. Lloyd at the President's House was on Saturday, May 7. The Senior Chapel Service, with first appearance of caps and gowns, was on Saturday, May 14.

The Commencement Play, "Wuthering Heights," which is no longer given by the senior class but by dramatic groups, was presented twice in the Maryville High School auditorium—on Saturday night, May 14, and Monday night, May 16. All the major plays since the Chapel fire in March, 1947, have been given at Maryville High School whose officials have been very generous indeed. After careful consideration the Faculty has decided to have these plays this year in Alumni Gymnasium with such improvised stage as may be possible.

President Lloyd's Baccalaureate sermon theme was "Finally—" (2 Cor. 13:11). The Senior Music Hour on Baccalaureate Sunday afternoon was held in New Providence Church in order to have an organ available. The preacher at the Commencement Vespers was M. le pasteur Marcel Pradervand of Geneva, Switzerland.

On Monday, May 16, the annual distribution of prizes was made at the chapel hour in the morning, a tennis match was won from Tusculum College in the afternoon, and the second rendition of "Wuthering Heights" came at night.

Tuesday, Alumni Day, began with a special musical program at the chapel hour. In the afternoon President and Mrs. Lloyd gave their annual reception for alumni, seniors, parents of students, faculty, and other guests. In the evening the Annual Alumni Dinner was attended by 325 persons. Earl W. Blazer, '30, President of the Alumni Association, presided. The various reunion classes were recognized and Samuel D. McMurray, of Bristol, Virginia, responded for the Fifty-Year Class, 1899, and Paul Armstrong, of Detroit, Michigan, for the Twenty-Five-Year Class, 1924. Because of the continuation of the Alumni Chapel Fund Campaign the nominating committee moved the re-election of the 1948-1949 officers and the Association unanimously adopted the motion. Thus Mr. Blazer, Mr. A. B. Waggoner, '14 and Miss Winifred Painter, '15, continue as President, Vice President and Recording Secretary respectively. Ruby Lane DeLozier, '37, Helen Anderson Kerr, '44, and Rollo Wells King, '41, were elected to the Executive Committee to serve for three years.

After the Dinner, a band concert was given in "the dell" below the college hospital. This was a successful resumption of a prewar feature of Commencement Week.

Throughout the week there were many alumni and parents visiting the College. There was quite a pilgrimage into the Great Smoky Mountains by parents, seniors, and a few other students who could find time between exams. An especially successful 25th reunion was held by the Class of 1924. Thirty-one members, about fifty percent of the Class, were present. Paul Armstrong was elected president for the next five years, succeeding Malcolm Miles.

Commencement Day itself (May 18) found a large proportion of underclassmen already on the way home, as usual. The weather was good as it had been on Baccalaureate Sunday. At the Directors' meeting, held at 8:30 a.m., formal action was taken conferring degrees, appointing faculty and staff for the ensuing year, adopting a budget, approving campaign and building plans, and some other items.

At the Graduation Exercises the address was given by the Rev. Edward Fay Campbell, D.D., Philadelphia, head of the Division of Higher Education of the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education. The B.A. degree was conferred on 72 seniors (43 women and 29 men) and the B.S. degree (now available to all science majors) on 38 (20 women and 18 men), a total of 110. In addition to these there were 11 who finished their work in December, 1948 and 12 more who expected to finish in some summer school, bringing the total of graduates in the Class of 1949 to 133.

A Fifty-Year Certificate was awarded to the one member of the Class of 1899 who could be present—Samuel Duffield McMurray of Bristol, Va. Mention was made of the other two living members of the class—Ethel Meek Kennedy McKenna of Mount Vernon in the State of Washington, and Mary Gaines Carnahan Hill of Malvern, Pennsylvania. Certificates were mailed to them later. There were originally ten members of the Class of 1899, of whom but these three are now living.

The following three honorary degrees were conferred:

Doctor of Letters upon Lois Coligny Wilson, '16, Nabatiyeh, Lebanon, foreign missionary, daughter of the late President Samuel Tyndale Wilson.

Doctor of Divinity upon Rev. Edward William Lodwick, '09, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Seville, Ohio; Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod of Ohio; father of four graduates of Maryville College.

Doctor of Divinity upon Rev. Marcel Pradervand, Geneva, Switzerland, Executive Secretary of the Alliance of Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System (which is sometimes and more conveniently called the World Presbyterian Alliance).

With the Recessional by Faculty, Graduating Class, Directors, Choir, and Daisy Chain, the 130th academic year was over. The fiscal year had thirteen more days to run and those left behind as the crowds melted away would be busy with records, buildings, and finances. For the College's business must be handled without any intermission in order to provide the program for young people which culminates each year in Commencement.

Here And There

Prep. 1893

Mrs. H. H. Chumlea (Doris White) visited the campus August 12. She now lives in Bellingham, Washington.

1889

A letter from Rev. Alexander Cooper reminds us that 1949 is the 60th anniversary of his graduation from Maryville College. Mr. Cooper sends his alumni dues regularly—would that all Alumni did the same.

1911

Mark May, Director of the Institute of Human Relations, Yale University, was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by Syracuse University at the 1949 Commencement. Dr. May taught at Syracuse from 1919 to 1924.

1914

John Albert Hyden, who is Professor of Mathematics at Vanderbilt University, has also been serving in the capacity of Acting Chairman of the Department for some time.

1922

Charles R. McClure is going in September to Jonesboro, Arkansas, where he will be chairman of the department of English at Arkansas State College.

1923

Herrick Ransom Arnold and his wife (Irma Schwab, '21) were on the campus one day this summer. They are living in Wilmington, Delaware, where Mr. Arnold is a chemist in the Dupont plant.

Prep. 1924

Mrs. D. E. Okes (Bertha Rutherford) visited on campus July 29. She is now living at 2207 Washington Street East, Charleston, West Virginia.

1925

Garnet R. Leader is instructor in Art at Phillips High School in Birmingham, Alabama. She has had several public exhibits of her paintings.

Stuart McConnell Rohre is now pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Rusk, Texas.

Raymond Anderson, who is Professor of Music at Birmingham-Southern College, served as Music Director for the Municipal Opera Association, which presented several light operas during the summer in the stadium of Birmingham-Southern.

Robert Clopton is Associate Professor of Education at the University of Hawaii; he is also a member of the Advisory Committee on Education for Guam and Truk territory of the Pacific Islands.

R. A. N. Wilson, Jr., has accepted the pastorate of Faith Presbyterian Church, Detroit.

Dr. Julian Johnson, who is Professor of Surgery at the University of Pennsylvania, gained widespread recognition and honor by the performance of an operation which was broadcast by television in technicolor. This was the first such attempt ever made with this equipment. Mrs. Johnson (Mary Chris Benn, '29) was a guest on the campus in August.

Charles F. Webb is Assistant Professor of English at the University of Tennessee. In addition to his teaching duties he is also English Coordinator and spends part of his time traveling over the State in connection with the program for improvement of the teaching of English in the high schools.

HAVE YOU MOVED?

Are you changing your name, address, occupation? If so, won't you please send the record, or any other news concerning yourself or family, to the Alumni Office so we can put it in the next issue of the Magazine—and so that you will receive the next issue. After each mailing about one hundred magazines are returned to the Office because of out-of-date addresses (for which, incidentally, we have to pay postage).
